12 Days of Deals

Customer FAQ

What is the 12 Days of Deals sale?

Every day from December 6th through December 17th, Fun Stampers Journey will feature items or group of items on sale for THAT DAY ONLY. For example, on December 7th we will feature our amazing Color Splash & Color Burst pencil sets on sale for 20% off.

What are the dates of the 12 Days of Deals sale?

12 Days of Deals begins on Wednesday, December 6th and ends on Sunday, December 17th. Each sale price will go into effect at midnight on the day of the sale and end at 11:59 p.m. CST each day.

If I miss purchasing a daily deal on the designated sale date, will I have an opportunity to purchase it at the discounted price if I contact customer service?

No, the special pricing for each deal is available for one day only. Please plan to give yourself plenty of time to finalize your purchases on each daily deal you want at the very special pricing before our online store updates for the next deal.

What are the shipping costs?

During the 12 Days of Deals, we are offering a $5 flat rate shipping for orders placed on the www.funstampersjourney.com site. If you have a Journey Coach you are currently working with, you can check with them to see if they have their own business site to order from OR you can enter their Coach information through the company site when ordering so they will be credited for your order.

Are there any restrictions on order totals to receive the special $5 flat shipping rate?

No, there are no order total restrictions. Whether your order totals $10 or $1000, you will still receive the flat rate of $5 shipping per order. That's an additional deal in itself!

Does the special $5 shipping rate ONLY apply to the sale item of the given day?

The $5 flat rate shipping will apply to anything in the order regardless of whether the item is a featured daily deal or not with exceptions listed below.

Are there ANY restricted items that do not qualify for the $5 flat rate shipping?

If your order includes the Amaze or Journey Platinum machine the regular shipping rate for those specific items will apply ($6.95 for orders less than $70 or 10% of order total for orders over $70).

Customer FAQ

Does the special $5 shipping rate apply to expedited orders?

No, if you wish to expedite your order (overnight or 2nd day shipping), normal expedited shipping rates will apply.

Does the special $5 shipping rate apply even if there is not a sale item included in the order?

Yes, during the sale period of Dec. 6-17, you will still receive the special $5 shipping rate on orders even if they do not include a sale item, so long as they do not also include a die cutting machine.

If I place an order totaling $150 or more through the company site, will I be eligible to receive customer rewards and my entire order shipped at the special $5 shipping rate?

Yes, as long as you place and submit the order on the day the sale item is offered.

Can a sale item be added as a customer reward item (with eligible orders of $150 or more)?

Yes, a sale item can be selected as one of the eligible customer reward items at the sale price.

Is there a limit to the number of sale items I can purchase each day?

No, you may purchase as many individual sale items as you wish!

If I purchase items on sale, will I still receive Bloom Benefits?

Yes, your order will still be eligible for Bloom Benefits.
